Day-by-Day Itinerary

01

Fri
19 Feb

Nairobi → Maasai Mara National Reserve

Arrive at Jomo Kenyatta International Airport (JKIA) at 05:40 AM. After immigration and baggage collection, our representative meets you at the arrivals hall. Board your 4×4 safari jeep and head west, stopping at the Great Rift Valley Viewpoint for sweeping views over the valley floor and its escarpments.

Reach the Maasai Mara in the afternoon for check-in, lunch and some rest. In the evening, visit a traditional Maasai village to see the community's homes, dances and customs up close.

Stay: Jambo Mara Safari Lodge

Meals: Lunch, Dinner

02

Sat
20 Feb

Maasai Mara – Full-Day Game Drives

Set out at first light for an early morning game drive, the best time to find lions, leopards and cheetahs on the move. Return to the lodge for breakfast.

Head back out for a full-day game drive across the Mara's open plains, with a packed bush lunch in the wilderness. Look out for the Big Five – lion, leopard, elephant, buffalo and rhino – along with giraffes, zebras, hippos and much more.

Stay: Jambo Mara Safari Lodge

Meals: Breakfast, Packed Lunch, Dinner

03

Sun
21 Feb

Maasai Mara → Lake Naivasha & Crescent Island

After breakfast, check out and drive to Lake Naivasha, arriving in time for lunch. Enjoy a boat ride on Lake Naivasha to spot hippos and a wide variety of birds.

Continue to Crescent Island for a guided nature walk – one of the few places in Kenya where you can walk among giraffes, zebras, wildebeest and antelopes.

Stay: Blooming Suites, Naivasha

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

04Mon
22 FebHell's Gate National Park → Nairobi

After breakfast, check out and drive to Hell's Gate National Park, known for its towering cliffs, rock formations and gorges. Explore the park by vehicle, or cycle through it (optional – bicycle hire is payable directly). Gorge access depends on weather and park conditions.

Lunch at a hotel, then drive to Nairobi, arriving in the evening for check-in, dinner and overnight stay.

Stay: Pridelnn Azure, NairobiMeals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner*05Tue
23 FebNairobi City Tour & Departure

After breakfast, check out (luggage stays with the vehicle) and set out on a Nairobi city tour covering the capital's key landmarks and neighbourhoods. After lunch, enjoy time for souvenir shopping – beadwork, wood carvings, kikoys and Kenyan tea and coffee.

After dinner, transfer to Jomo Kenyatta International Airport for your 06:40 AM flight on Wed 24 Feb back to India, carrying memories of an unforgettable Kenyan safari.

Important Notes – Before You Travel

Yellow Fever Vaccination – Mandatory

- The Government of India requires all travellers arriving in India from Kenya to hold a valid Yellow Fever vaccination certificate.
- Take the vaccine at a Government-authorized Yellow Fever vaccination centre at least 10 days before departure (by 8 Feb 2027). Book your slot early.
- Carry the original certificate. Photocopies, scans or phone photos are not accepted.
- Travellers without a valid certificate may be quarantined for up to 6 days on arrival in India, at their own cost.

Passport & Kenya eTA

- Indian passport valid for at least 6 months from the date of return, with at least 2 blank pages.
- Indian citizens need a Kenya Electronic Travel Authorisation (eTA) before travel. Tripate applies for it on your behalf.
- Send a clear passport scan (front & back), a recent photo and your flight tickets by 18 Jan 2027.
- Carry a printed copy of the approved eTA.

Health & Fitness

- Consult your doctor about malaria prevention and carry personal medicines with prescriptions.
- Safari roads are rough and bumpy. Guests with back or spine problems, or who are pregnant, should take medical advice before booking.
- Inform us of any medical condition or dietary need at the time of booking.

Safari Rules

- Stay inside the vehicle during game drives unless your guide says otherwise.
- Drones are not allowed in Kenyan national parks and reserves.
- Plastic carry bags are banned in Kenya – heavy fines apply. Pack with cloth or zip pouches.
- Ask permission before photographing people, including in the Maasai village.
- Wildlife sightings depend on nature and cannot be guaranteed.

What to Pack

- Light clothing in neutral colours (khaki, olive, beige); a warm layer for cold early mornings.
- Hat, sunglasses, sunscreen, insect repellent and comfortable walking shoes.
- Binoculars, power bank and a universal adaptor (Kenya uses UK-style 3-pin sockets).
- A soft bag is easier to load in safari vehicles than a hard suitcase.
- Carry some US Dollars in clean, newer notes; older or torn notes are often refused.

Terms & Conditions

01 Booking Confirmation

A booking is confirmed only on receipt of the booking amount and a signed booking form. By paying the booking amount, the traveller accepts all terms in this document.

02 Non-Refundable Booking Amount

The booking amount of 30% (₹29,666 per person) is non-refundable under any circumstances, including change of plans, medical reasons, eTA refusal or a co-traveller's cancellation.

03 Price Validity

The package price is fixed for confirmed bookings. If government taxes, GST/TCS rates, park entry fees or eTA fees change before travel, the difference will be charged or refunded accordingly.

04 Kenya eTA

Approval of the eTA is at the sole discretion of the Kenyan authorities; Tripate cannot guarantee approval. If the eTA is refused, the booking amount is retained and the remaining paid amount is refunded. Delays caused by late or incorrect documents are the traveller's responsibility.

05 Flights Booked by the Traveller

Flights are not part of this package. Tripate is not responsible for flight delays, cancellations, missed connections or schedule changes. Services missed due to late arrival or early departure are non-refundable, and any extra transfer cost will be charged.

06 Travel Documents

Travellers must carry a valid passport, the approved eTA and the original Yellow Fever certificate. Names must match the passport exactly. Denied boarding, denied entry or quarantine arising from missing or invalid documents is at the traveller's own cost.

07 Change of Name / Traveller

Replacing a traveller may be allowed up to 31 days before departure at Tripate's discretion, subject to hotel acceptance and a fresh eTA fee paid by the traveller.

08 Itinerary Changes

The itinerary may be changed or re-sequenced due to weather, road or park conditions, local regulations or operational reasons. Equivalent arrangements will be provided wherever possible. Hotels listed may be replaced by others of the same category.

09 Wildlife Sightings

Wildlife is wild. Sightings of any particular animal, including the Big Five, cannot be guaranteed, and no refund is due for animals not seen.

10 Unused Services

Meals, game drives, sightseeing or nights not used for personal reasons, illness or late arrival are non-refundable.

11 Minimum Group Size

This departure runs subject to a minimum number of travellers. If Tripate cancels the departure, travellers may move to another date or receive a full refund of amounts paid to Tripate. Tripate is not liable for flight tickets or other costs booked separately by the traveller.

12 Health, Fitness & Insurance

Travellers must be medically fit for long road journeys and safari drives. Travel insurance with medical cover is strongly recommended. Medical, evacuation or hospital expenses are the traveller's responsibility.

13 Optional & Adventure Activities

Cycling, walking safaris and similar activities are voluntary and at the traveller's own risk. Tripate is not liable for any injury, accident or loss arising from such activities.

14 Loss of Passport or Belongings

Travellers are responsible for their passports, money and belongings. In case of loss, all formalities and costs, including re-issue of documents, extra stay or new tickets, are borne by the traveller.

15 Immigration & Local Laws

Entry into any country is at the discretion of immigration officials. Tripate is not responsible for denied entry, deportation or legal matters arising from previous visa history or personal conduct. Travellers must follow Kenyan laws, including the plastic bag ban and the ban on drones in parks.

16 Conduct

Travellers must follow the instructions of the guide and cooperate with the group. Tripate may remove a traveller whose behaviour endangers or seriously disturbs others, without refund.

17 Third-Party Services

Tripate acts as a coordinator between hotels, transport operators, parks and local partners. Any change, delay or service failure by these third parties is beyond our direct control, though we will do our best to resolve it on the spot.

18 Force Majeure

Tripate is not liable for losses or extra expenses caused by events beyond its control, such as natural calamities, epidemics, political unrest, strikes, government orders, park closures or airline failures. Refunds in such cases depend on amounts recovered from suppliers.

19 Limitation of Liability

Tripate's total liability is limited to the amount paid for the tour package. No claims beyond this will be entertained.

20 Complaints

Any issue during the tour must be reported immediately to the guide or Tripate so it can be fixed on the spot. Written complaints must reach admin@tripate.com within 7 days of the tour's end.

21 Jurisdiction

All disputes are subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts in Chennai, Tamil Nadu.
